

Jamie Lynne Burgess

Writer & Teacher

Carlisle, Massachusetts / 978-761-9477 / jamie@jamielynneburgess.com

Academic Presentations

- "It's All Vegetables!": Ethical and Sustainable Eating with Louisa May Alcott (Accepted) July 2023
Thoreau Society Annual Gathering
- Off the 'Treadmill': What Abigail Alcott's Ethics Can Teach Us About Life After Capitalism (Accepted) May 2023
American Literature Association Annual Conference
- Old Story, New Ending: Crossing Transcendentalism with Ecofeminism to Conjure Cuba in 'Pauline's Passion and Punishment' July 2022
Thoreau Society Annual Gathering
- The Fruitlands Effect: How the Utopian Experiment Influenced Louisa May Alcott's Life and Work July 2022
Fruitlands Museum
- Alcotts Ahead of Their Time April 2022
Milton House Museum, Wisconsin
- Celebrating Louisa May Alcott November 2021
Louisa May Alcott Society Annual Gathering
- "The Land Between the Tides" April 2020
Elsewhere Studios, Paonia, Colorado
- The Many Faces of Little Women May 2020
Elsewhere Studios, Paonia, Colorado
- Little Women: How a Book for Girls Captured the American Imagination January 2020
Bud Werner Memorial Library, Steamboat Springs, Colorado
- Farmer's Drudge: Representations of Farmers in the Work of Louisa May Alcott July 2016
Louisa May Alcott's Orchard House Summer Conversational Series
- Considerations of a Hungry Man: Frederick Douglass's Freedom through Food Narrative March 2014
North Carolina State University English Graduate Student Association Conference
- Both Sides of the Fence: Animal Farm as a Freedom Narrative from the Future March 2014
University of North Carolina at Charlotte English Graduate Student Association Annual Conference

Media & Features

- Let Genius Burn: Louisa May Alcott, Lost Ladies of Lit Podcast, Episode 46 August 2021
- "What We Can Learn from Louisa May Alcott & Little Women," NextAvenue (PBS) May 2018

Creative Writing & Book Reviews

- Winner, Stories from Home Short Story Contest April 2020
Bud Werner Memorial Library, Steamboat Springs, Colorado
- Artist-in-Residence March & April 2020
Elsewhere Studios
Paonia, Colorado
- "Where Old Love Goes" (Pushcart Prize Nomination), Herstry February 2020
- "Felicity Both Enchants and Delights" Steamboat Pilot & Today
- "Land of Enchantment, Flawed and Beautiful" Steamboat Pilot & Today
- "Lucy Barton Offers Intimate Voice," Steamboat Pilot & Today
- "Shakespeare for the 21st Century," Steamboat Pilot & Today